

Love, Charlie

Dear Mari...

I love you Mari.

Everything is going to work out and probably better than it should.

I could not be more proud of you and your accomplishments.

You are the mother I wish I could have had.

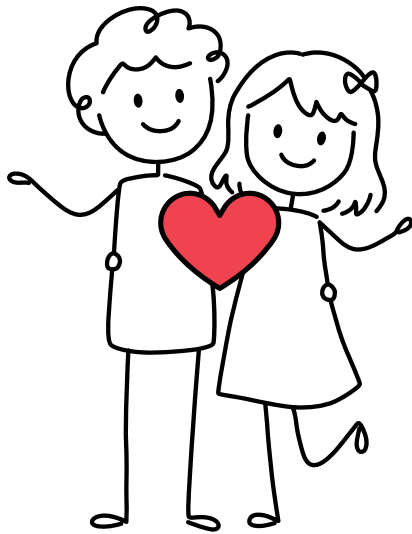

You are the best friend I have ever had.

I hope you know how much I value your friendship!

Charles

I love you Mari.
I am glad you were kissing me
in your dreams.

I get to be with Mari,
she is so great.

She is pretty and smart.
We spend hours talking together.
I love it!

She is a very special person.
I sure would like to keep her in my life.

She is wonderful and has become a very dear friend in a very short time. I love to spend time with her, and talk to her, and to see her.

I don't want her to go away. I hope she stays in my life for a long, long, long time!

Honey, lunch was good...
it was so good, I forgot to eat.

I appreciate your positive attitude Mari.

Things will be okay.

I know it.

I know this means the Lord just has another plan for us.

I can live with that.

We will not turn from him and he will not turn from us.

Having you in my life has brought me so much joy.

I really wish you could see yourself
through my eyes.

You are the most wonderful person I have ever met.
We should probably have focused on your singing career instead of my schooling. We would probably be millionaires by now.

Mari deserves to be placed on a pedestal, and held high where she can bask in the light. She is so sweet and gentle to me and to Samantha. She wants to be tough, or tries to be tough. But I believe she endures more stress than she should, and a good portion is due to me and my thoughtlessness. I will work my entire life to make it up to her.

Strangely enough,
I have found a new love for your body
too!

Mari is behind me of course.
She will follow me even if she does not like it.
I love her for it.

Mari is a true pioneer.
She usually gets tired part way through and wants to give up, admittedly, sometimes so do I.
But Mari is tough.

Don't you ever doubt my love for you.

I love you.

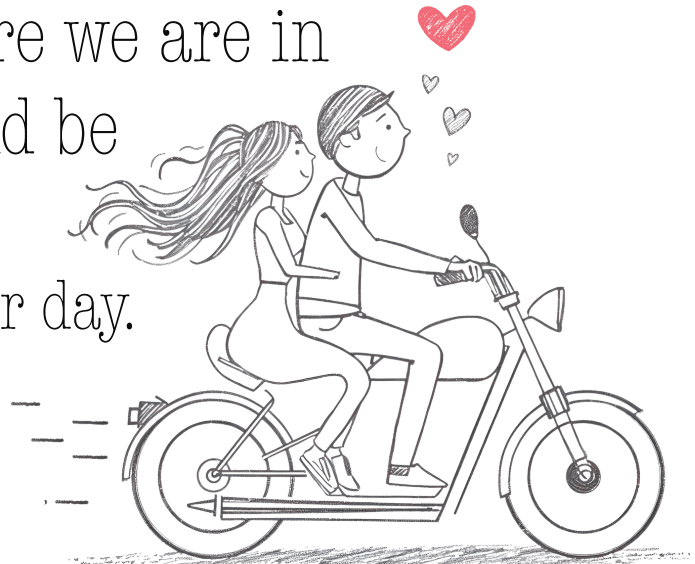

Hang in there Mari.

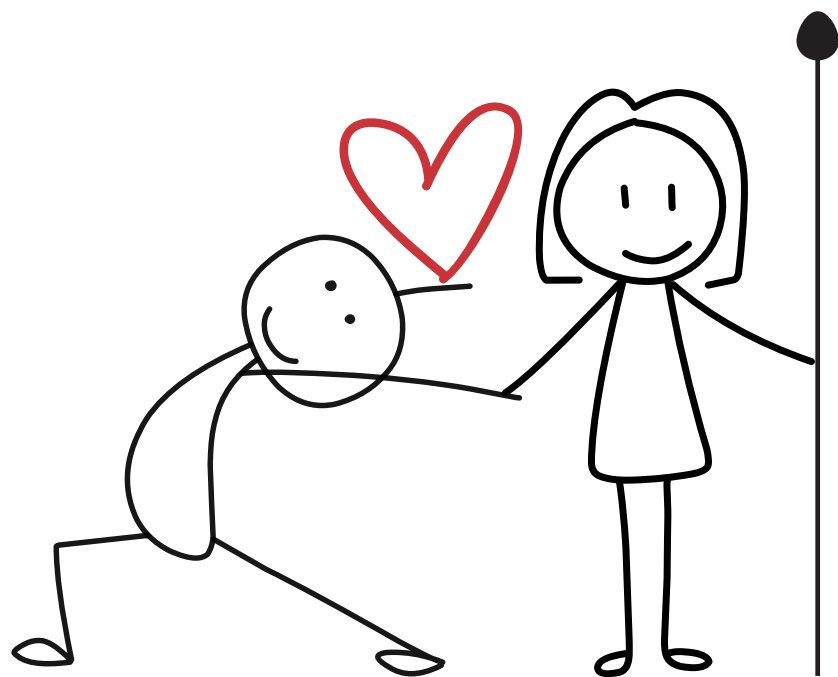

“Good times are here to stay!”

Please take a moment to take in your surroundings, appreciate where we are in life together, and be grateful.

It will change your day.

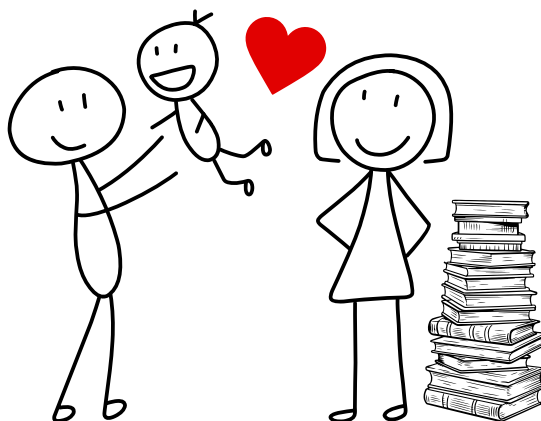

Again, I love you.

Mari is my pillar of support.

She is encouraging me on in a miraculous way.
I hope I am making her as happy as she has made me.

Mari has grown to become the most beloved and trusted companion

I have, or ever shall know.

She has that fighting spirit and has such courage to stand up to the world. People like Mari don't come around very often, and I feel fortunate to have found her.

She is a woman of biblical reputation and honor.

I love you Mari.
That's all.
I love you.

Please take a deep breath and clear your mind.

Okay, now repeat after me...

“I am calm as a summer’s morning, I am calm as a summer’s morning, I am calm as a summer’s morning...”

My heart is ever with you Mari.

My thoughts are with you.

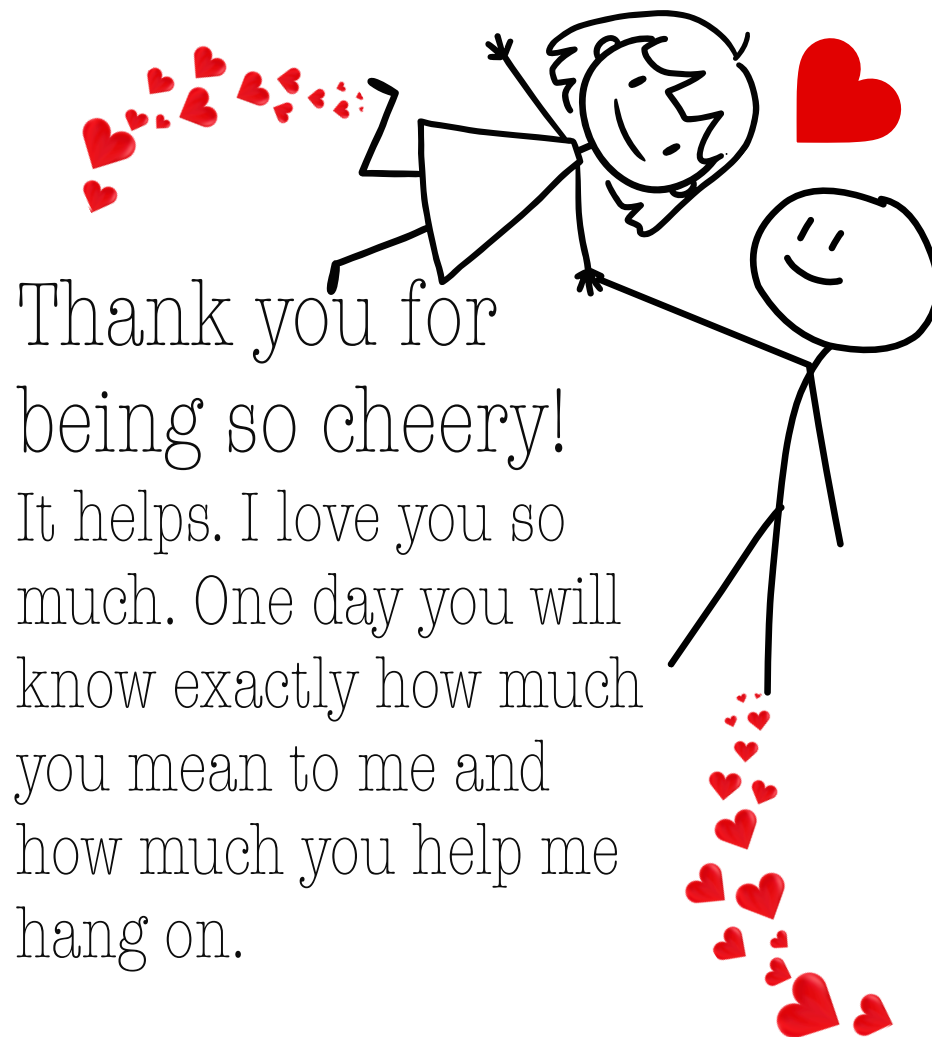

Things will turn out well,
and probably more quickly than they should.

Mari and I have grown close,
so close to each other in these last few years of preparation.
I love my wife.
I finally know what the phrase "the wife of my bosom" means.

I already miss you!

Thank you for being so cheery!
It helps. I love you so much. One day you will know exactly how much you mean to me and how much you help me hang on.

Mari is a strong woman, but she can often exceed the limits of her endurance, which is considerable.
However, I am glad she is so strong. If it ever comes to it I know she can pull me from a burning car or rescue me in other life threatening situations.

Mari has been struggling recently with many different things.

It is hard on her to be alone with our children every day.

She is a wonderful mother and our children are superior, but Mari likes to get out and do things. I do love her for all of the sacrifices that she has made for the last few years for our family. I will be sure to make it worth her while.

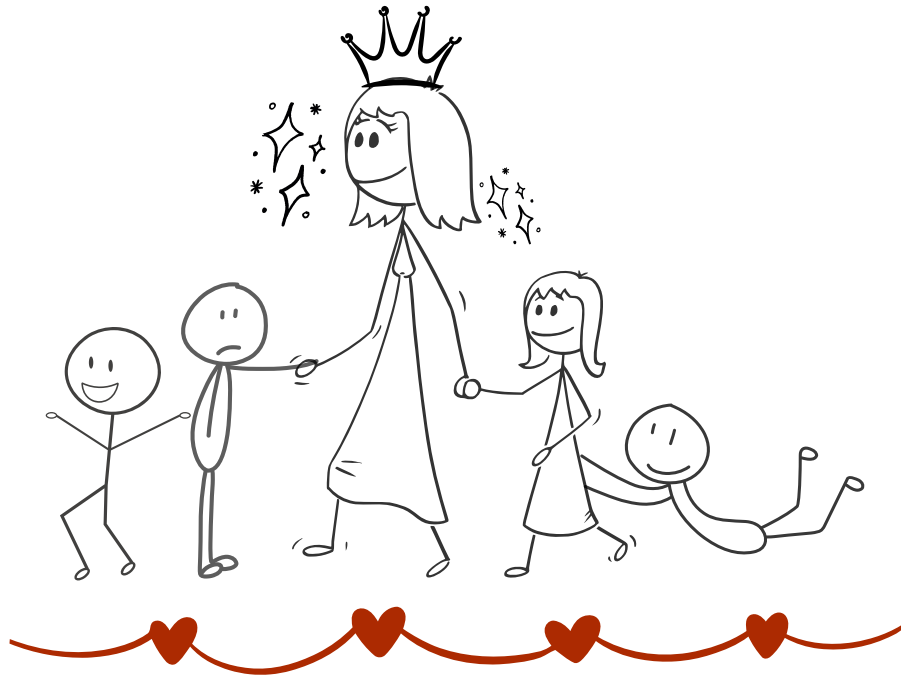

You are a beautiful woman.

You were beautiful then and you are beautiful now. I feel so bad you don't get out as much as you used to play.

I love you Mari.

I always have and I always will.

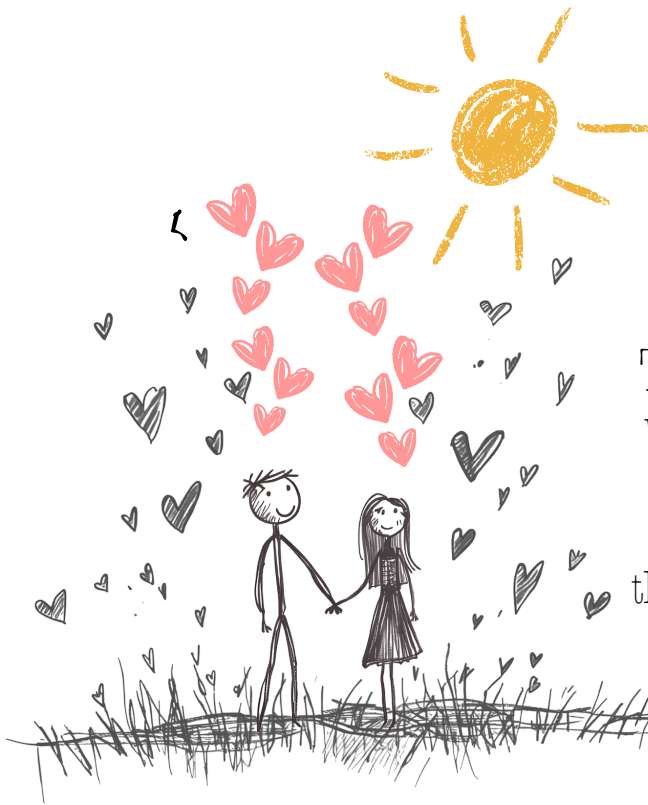

Mari is my favorite Mother.

I am so proud of her and how much she does for our children.
My children are very lucky to have a mother who loves them so much.

I love you. You are so great.
Please keep your chin up. Thank you for all you do for yourself and for our family.

I love you Mari.

I love you so much.

Keep your chin up.

The clouds will break.

The sun will shine forth.

We will find peace and our place in the world.

We will not be forever wandering through the wilderness of our lives.

We will have joy and know the good things in life.

Hang in there Mari.

Keep the light in your mind
and heart
and the bad guys can't touch you.

Please promise me this:
focus on happy
thoughts today.

All will be well.

I can feel it in my bones. There are dark forces at work trying to drown out the light from our lives, but they have no power over us that we do not give them.

You will see, we will be fine.

Focus today on showing the children some love.

I know you love them, but make more of an effort to show it. Play a game with them.

Do something that makes you feel warm and motherly.

This will all turn out for the best, and probably more quickly than it should.

I love you Mari.
Please pray throughout the day.
We can never let our guard down.
We must be prayerful always.

I love you Mari.

Keep hope alive in your heart.

The world may have nothing to offer us, nothing to fix our faith on. But it has always been that way for the faithful.

We have hope in our Savior.

We can trust that in him we will find peace and joy.

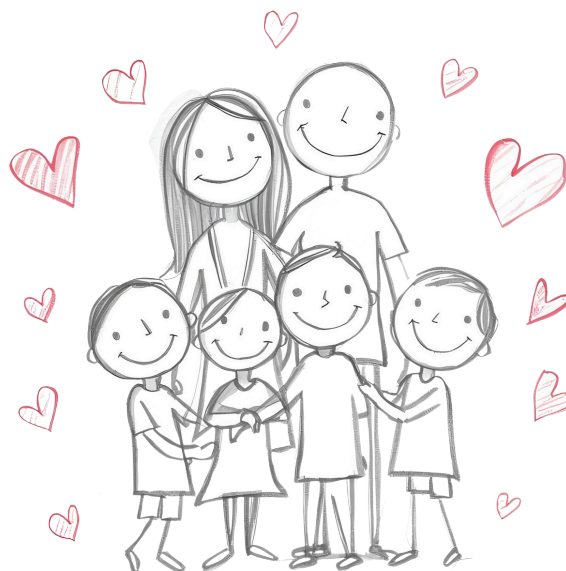

Okay, I love you.

Keep up the good work on your running and with the children.

You are a superior mother and a wonderful friend.

I am sure that if we chase our dreams (and I truly hope they are “our” dreams) it will not suck the life from you.

You are very sweet Mari.

I am glad you run. It keeps me in the game.

I love you.

There is not much I would not do to make sure you and the children are happy.

Well, aren't we little miss optimism today.

I look forward to seeing what your prayers can do.

You only need ask.

Or, you can do like me, get it and ask forgiveness later.
It's your money too.

I love you Mari.

Keep saying your prayers about everything.

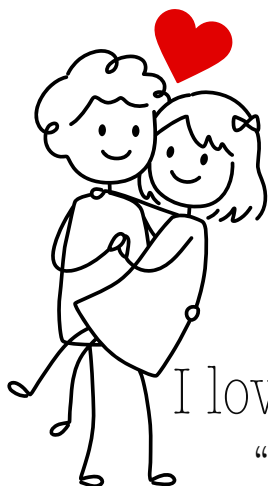

Get creative. It's not just about having good things happen.

We both need the spirit of discernment, patience, faith, creative solutions to problems, hope, all that stuff.

This is just another problem that needs solving.

It will be great and we will be taken care of and blessed.

I am excited to see it all work out.

I love you sweetheart.

“Sense of well-being.”

Who couldn't use more of that, right? I am glad you had a good nights rest and that you are at peace.

All will work out, and probably better than it should.

We will continue to work, pray, repent, and try to do all we can to make the world where we are a better place.

It will all work out.

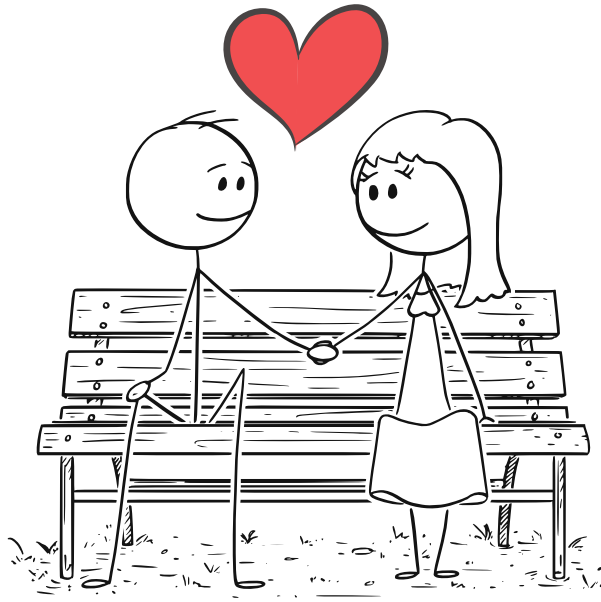

I love you.

It worked out wonderfully,
and better than it should have.

I love you Mari.

Keep your prayers on high alert,
but I think this life might just turn out alright for our little family.

We are okay, right?

We are happy?

Hang in there Mari. We can make it through this. We will be alright.

We will find joy together.

I love you.

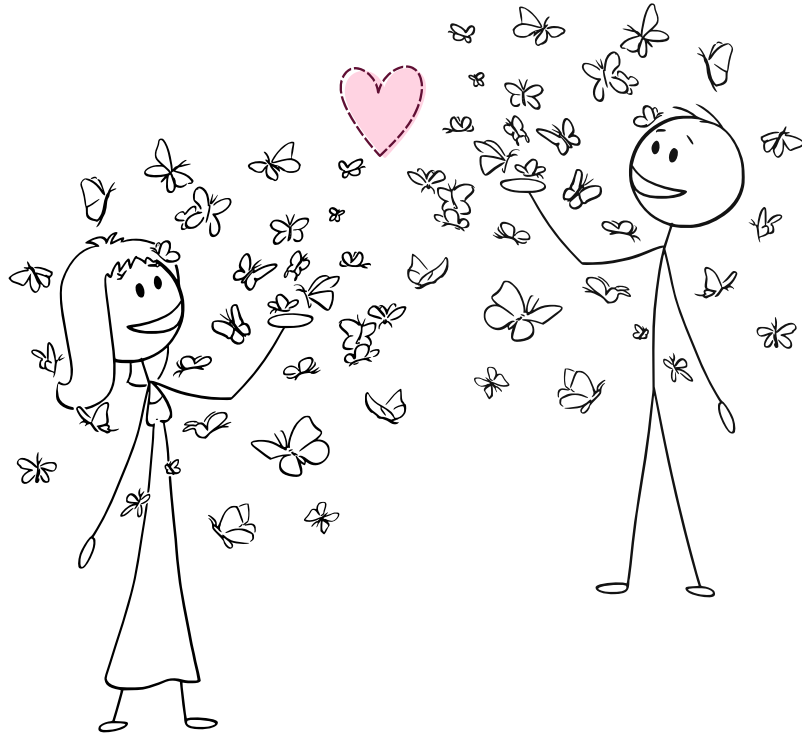

I love you Mari.

I have always loved you.

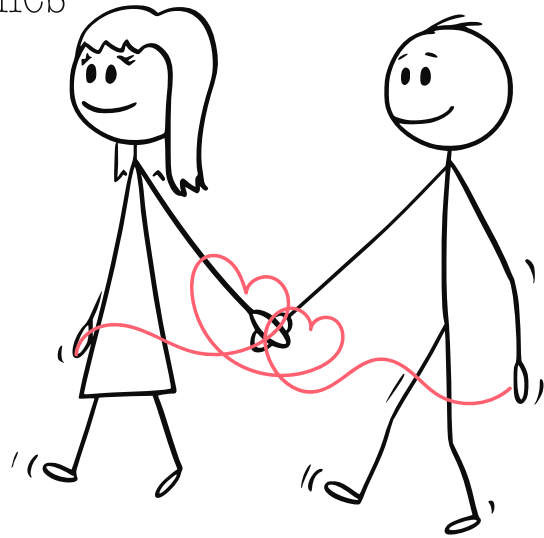

I am so grateful for your faith in me and your love for me.

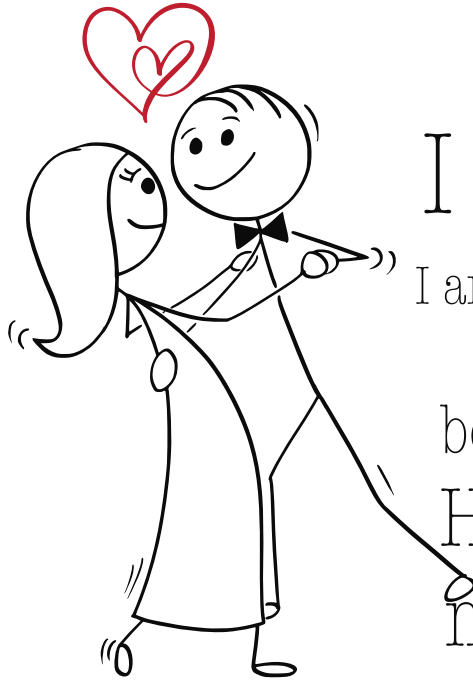

I am a very lucky guy.

I love you Mari.
I hope you are having a fun day.

The one thing I cannot go on without is your love and affection.
It really does keep me going.
You are always so free with it that I think I sometimes take it for granted.
I love you Mari.

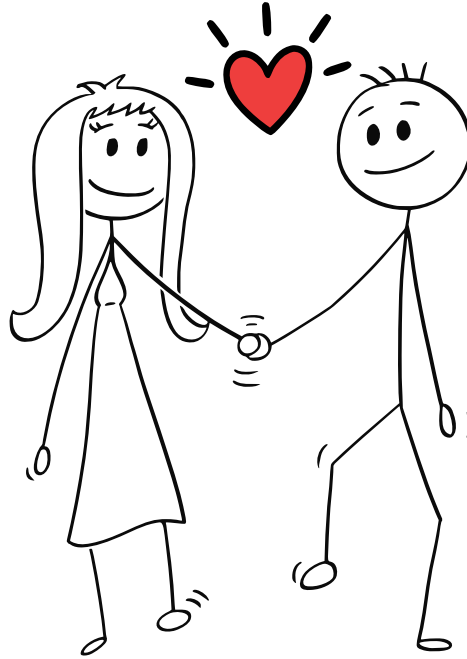

I love you Mari.

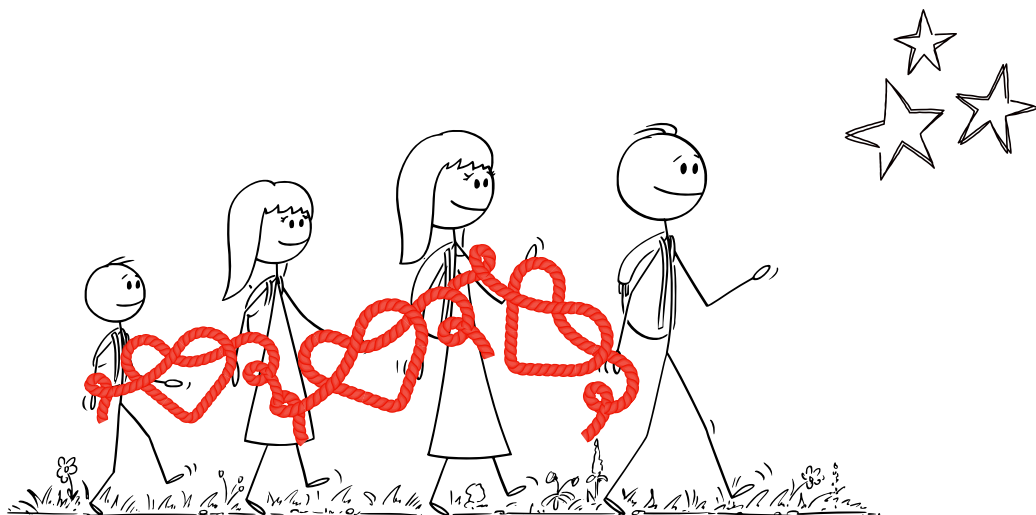

I am looking forward to the future.

Sometimes it's so scary
because it is so uncertain.

However, uncertainty means that there are not restrictions on it being very good.

I love you and I am so glad you are a good and faithful person.
I am very lucky to be with you.

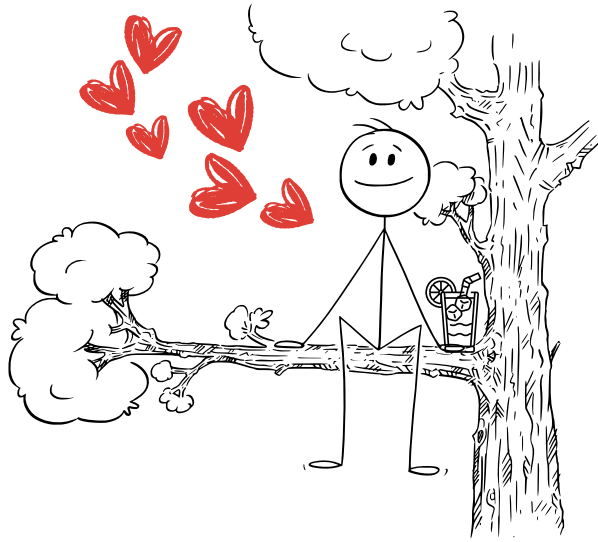

I love you Mari.

You are very brave for your willingness to follow me on my venture.

Not that you have any reason to be brave, but it is uncharted territory and I think most women would want safe and secure instead of limitless potential right now.

I love you. I love our children.
I am so glad we are a family.

I have family withdrawals right now.
I am thinking about you and the children. I miss the early days when we were all young and innocent.
I long for slow moving days in the shade, with a lemonade, watching the world go by.
I love you dear.
I hope your day is swell.

Luckily, no giant hole in my chest.
You are there for me every night.

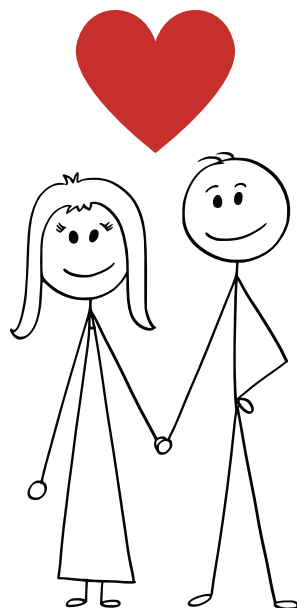

I love you honey.

I wish my deep thoughts came at a time other than at 2:30AM, but I am glad they come.

I am glad that you are willing to discuss them with me.
It really helps to be able to talk to you.

I know you will always be honest with me,
even if it is something I do not want to hear.

I love you.

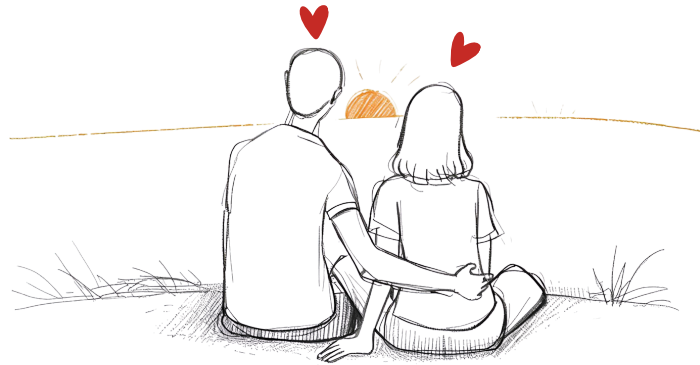

I love you so much Mari.
You are wonderful!

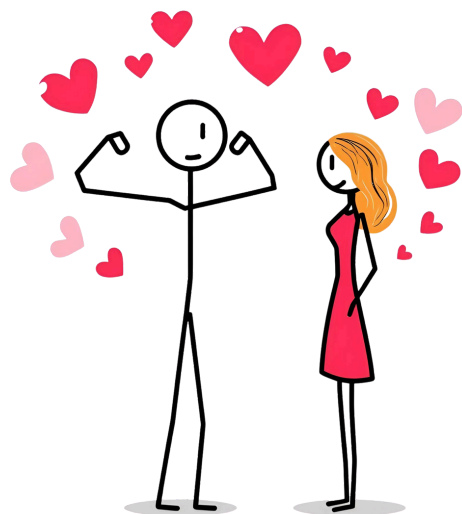

Mari and I can see it.

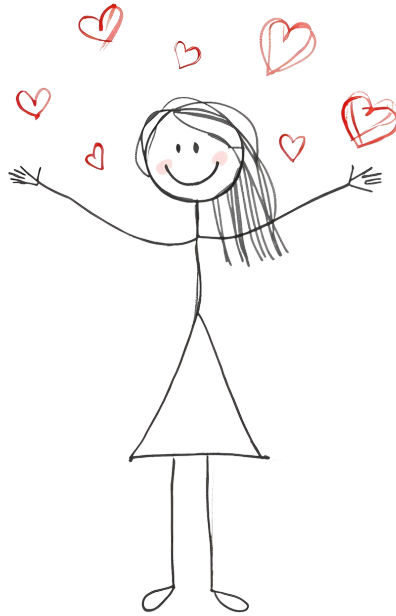

We are being prepared for something,
if not simply to raise good children who love the Lord with all their hearts, for we do.

We have a good life.
I love you sweetheart.

You have nothing you owe me,
or need to prove to me at all.
On the contrary,
I have much I need to do,
to prove to you how much I love you.

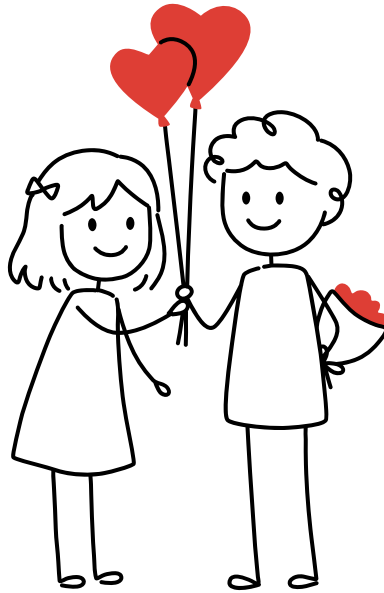

I love you, by the way.
You are such a great comfort to me.
I pray this day will be strangely enjoyable for you.

You have brought our children into the world, and you have done it in the prime of your life. Your act of giving birth was an act of love and sacrifice that brought you into the path of bodily harm, and possible death, and it has placed you on the level with the Gods.

I consider your love for me a sacred and beautiful thing.

I am trying to express to you some of my feelings, so that you can know how I feel about you, and so you can know how much power you have over me.

I love you Mari.
You are fantastic!

Thanks, Mari.

I could not do it without you.

Really, anything.

You have been there through thick and thin, and you are a true saint.

You are wonderful!

I am realizing more and more how special Mari is.

I want to say how much I love my wife, Mari.

She does so much for our family.
She is such a great example to me.

I am going to make a real effort to watch her,
and learn about her,
and become more like her.

She is good, and simple, and innocent.

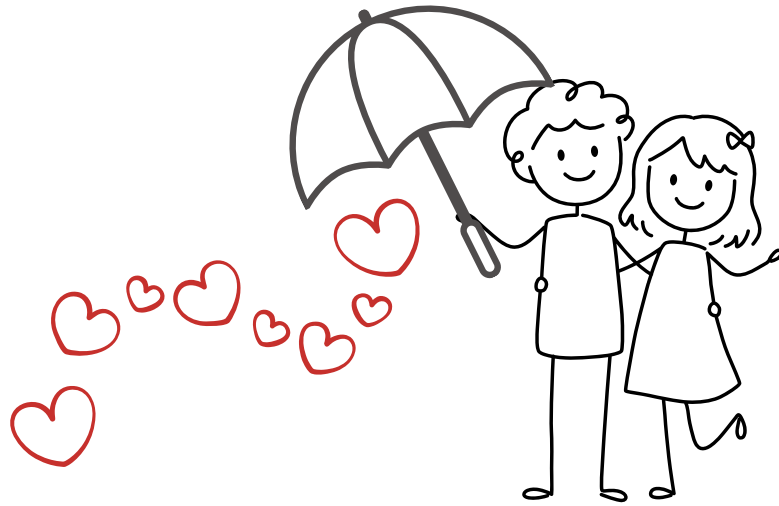

I love her.

I hope she does not become tired of me.

Mari will never get old to me.

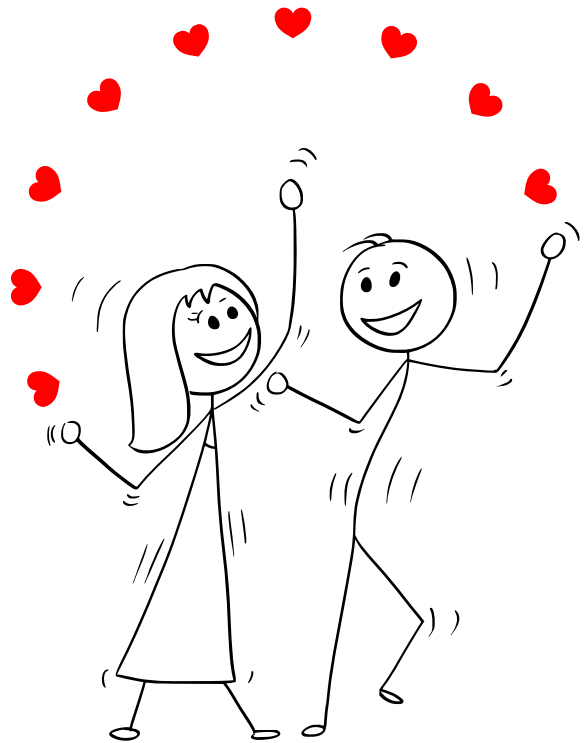

She may get wrinkly,
but she will never get old.

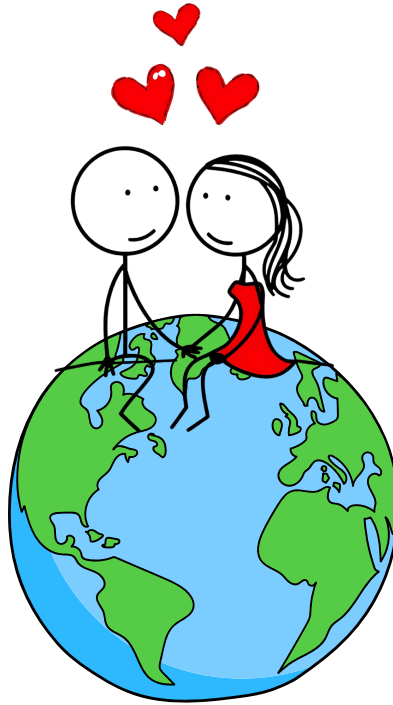

I begin to see with clearer vision each day,
and I now better see the cause of womanhood, because of your superior example to me.

I am proud of you Mari.

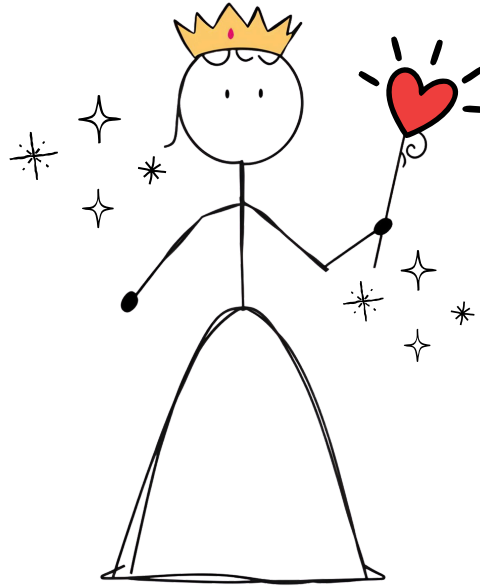

I need to tell you how brave and beautiful you are more often.

I love you Mari.
It sure makes me happy to take care of you.
I hope you are happy too.

If I could have been given an eternity to conceptualize the perfect woman, wife, and mother,
I could not have put together a person half as good as Mari is to me.

You are a mighty daughter of God.

What a woman – what a time!

I can tell you
I won't let you walk through this world alone.

One lifetime is simply not going to be enough with you.
It's going to have to be for eternity.

"Mari, you are so beautiful and I am so proud of you."

Lonely rivers sigh,
wait for me,
wait for me.

I'll be coming home wait for me

Oh my love my darling

I've hungered for your touch

a long lonely time

Time goes by so slowly

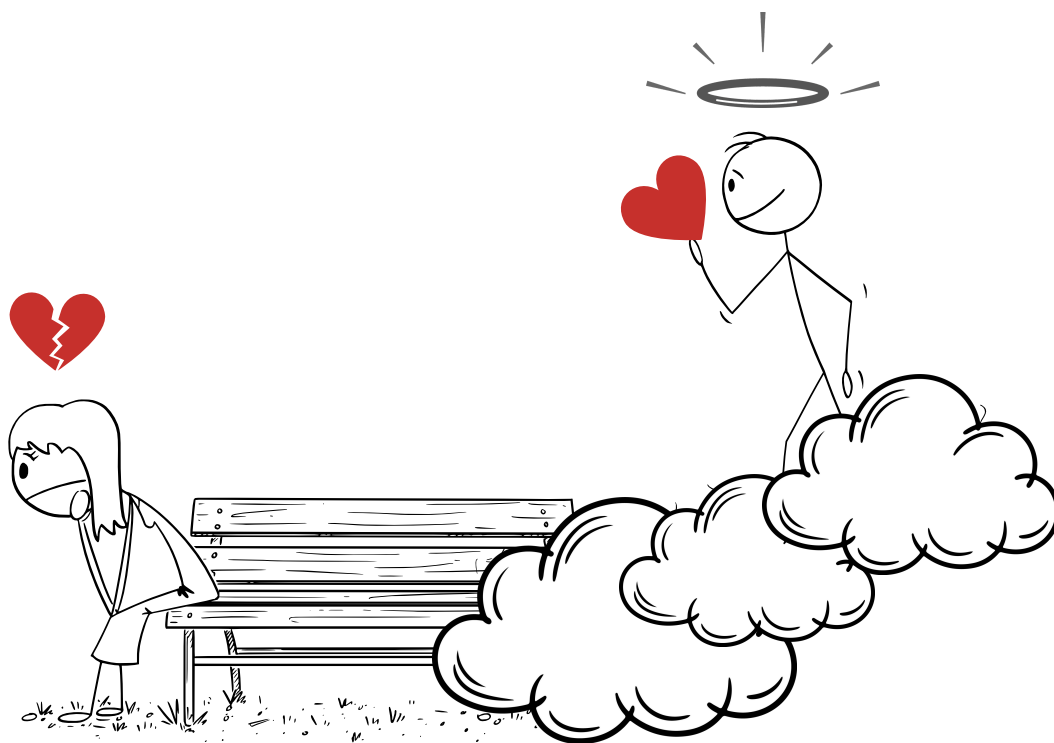

And time can do so much

are you still mine?

I need your love

I need your love

God speed your love to me

I am coming home.
I'll see you soon.

I Love you

I love Mai.
